

PRESS RELEASE DRAFT - EMBARGOED UNTIL OCT 14, 2024

The SustainabilityX® Magazine Announces 3rd Annual Global 50 Women In Sustainability Awards™ Under the Theme "Embrace Boldness"

Toronto, October 14, 2024 — The SustainabilityX® Magazine is proud to announce the digital release of The SustainabilityX® Magazine's 3rd Annual Global 50 Women In Sustainability Awards™ 2024, under the compelling theme "Embrace Boldness." This year's awards celebrate the fearless and innovative women who are leading the charge in sustainability, redefining leadership, and driving transformative change across the globe.

Celebrating Bold Leadership in Sustainability

The 2024 edition of The SustainabilityX® Magazine's Global 50 Women In Sustainability Awards™ recognizes an exceptional group of women who have not only made significant contributions to sustainability but have also exemplified bold leadership in the face of unprecedented global challenges. These leaders are recognized for their pioneering actions, creative solutions, and unwavering commitment to building a sustainable and equitable future.

The awards focus on honouring those who have dared to take risks, challenge the status quo, and drive forward bold initiatives that make a tangible impact. From advancing renewable energy solutions and advocating for environmental justice to leading corporate sustainability strategies and driving policy changes, these women are paving the way for a more sustainable world.

Key Highlights of the 2024 Awards:

- 40 Leaders Honoured: The awards recognize 40 women who have demonstrated exceptional leadership in sustainability, driving impactful change in their respective fields. These leaders are celebrated for their innovative approaches and steadfast commitment to making sustainability a central part of our global narrative. Their work not only addresses current environmental and social challenges but also sets a powerful example for future generations of leaders.
- 10 Global Changemakers: This year, 10 extraordinary individuals are honoured as Global Changemakers who have significantly influenced the world through their visionary leadership, innovation, and unwavering commitment to positive change. These leaders, who transcend boundaries in their respective fields, have made profound impacts on society, from advocating for education and social justice to revolutionizing industries and empowering the next generation.

Supriya Verma, Founder of The SustainabilityX® Magazine and a celebrated leader in sustainability, shared her vision for the awards: "These awards are a testament to the power of bold leadership in sustainability. The extraordinary women we are honouring have not only faced challenges head-on but have also turned them into opportunities for creating lasting, positive change. Their work inspires us all to continue pushing boundaries and to lead with courage and conviction in our pursuit of a more sustainable world."

Digital Release and Engagement Opportunities

The SustainabilityX® Magazine's Global 50 Women In Sustainability Awards™ 2024 are digitally unveiled on the SustainabilityX.Co website. This digital release features a comprehensive showcase of the awardees, detailing their contributions and impact through a series of engaging content formats:

- Main Awards Page: The main awards page features all awardees, offering a snapshot of their remarkable achievements and bold contributions to sustainability. This dedicated page serves as a hub for recognizing and celebrating the leaders driving positive change globally.
- Exclusive Spotlights: Awardees are featured in in-depth "Exclusive Spotlight" profiles that delve into their leadership journey, the challenges they've overcome, and their visions for the future of sustainability. These spotlights offer a comprehensive look at the remarkable contributions and impact of each leader, allowing readers to connect with their stories on a deeper level.
- Thought Leadership Articles: The magazine publishes a collection of thought leadership articles authored by the awardees themselves, providing a platform for them to share their expertise, insights, and perspectives on pressing sustainability issues.

About The SustainabilityX® Magazine

The SustainabilityX® Magazine is an award-winning, digital, female-founded, and female-led non-profit initiative bringing the environment and economy together for a sustainable future through dialogue. Founded on May 8, 2016, and inspired by the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals by Canada's Top 30 Under 30 in Sustainability Leadership awardee, Supriya Verma, the digital media initiative focuses on approaching the world's most pressing challenges with a holistic, integrated, systems-based perspective as opposed to the traditional and ineffective siloed approach with a single lens on interdisciplinary topics like climate and energy. This initiative ultimately seeks to explore how to effectively bring the environment and economy together through intellectual, insightful dialogue and thought-provoking discussion amongst individuals across sectors taking an interdisciplinary and integrated approach to untangling the intricate web of sustainability. Show your support for independent, high-impact publications by becoming a subscribing member and help power international conversations that matter.

The SustainabilityX® Magazine is a proud member of the Sustainable Journalism Partnership, serves as a cause-based media partner for various events such as WIRED Impact, and officially delivers remarks at international conferences such as UNESCO's annual World Press Freedom Day Conference.
